

Summer Camp Cri-Cri at LM 2022

What does culture
of tradition mean to you?

I think tradition means something that you
either celebrate or remember on a certain date. People mostly do this once a year, to reflect on it.

Journal entry 1

today i made a painting of what art means to me. what i made a sunset, flower, heart and its the first day of camp what my art represents is life of plants and animals and humans i like roses and my gymnastics is going good in fact i have it to night today at camp we used water color to our creations. we did parts of the plant. my favorite color is blue green and black i love this new journal entry i rearranged my room last weekend at the start of camp i was really really really really scared but now i really really really really like it here and on wednesday we have to bring out swimming suits because we are going on a field trip to the pool
